provinces of the United States, which, of course, will take our manufactures in return! Either to strain from the other side of the Atlantic, via New York, has been subjected to three several freights, and has passed through three or four different hands, ere it reached Liverpool. In the new arrangement, it can be put on board at Chicago, on Lake Michigan, and discharged at Liverpool, the period occupied in the passage being fifty days, or even less.

The Southern Disunionists.
Columbia, S. C., Oct. 13, 1856.
Remored meeting of the Governors of the Southern States. Reports are current here that the Governors of the fifteen Southern States will meet at Raleigh, to-morrow, to consider what steps it will be necessary to take for the protection of the rights of the Southern States, should Mr. Fremont be elected to the Presidency.

The Democratic politicians of the South appear to be putting up the electoral votes of their State at auction, and there are only two bidders, James Buchanan and Millard Fillmore. The conduct of the sale are rather hard—the niggers must take with the votes, and they are started at Governor Wise's price—five thousand dollars a vote—who bids the highest price for the niggers will, however, get the votes.—N. Y. Herald.

burning down, missed by the United States steamer Cataract, her upper works were all destroyed. Nothing now remains but the blind end and charred hull. She was loaded 7,000 bushels of wheat and one thousand of flour, besides a quantity of leather, wool, The crew were all saved. The greater part of the furniture was destroyed. It is reported the insurance of the vessel ran out last week and had not been renewed.
